

September Prayer Calendar

September 6

Alexandria

Lana Likens

The Alexandria Presbyterian Church has the joy of preparing for another confirmation class this fall, in planning for a study group for the fall, and in Sunday School starting again soon. We would ask for prayers for our little community of Alexandria, which works so hard to continue to be vital even with a very small population. Our church's members are vital contributors to the Community Club, which has held several new events recently, including a garage sale and a potluck meal; the Fire Department; and the city government. We praise God for the opportunity to serve Him in southeast Nebraska! On a personal note - I am thankful for a successful open house at Jefferson Community Health Center celebrating our recently completed renovation. We had more than 600 people at our facility Saturday. It has been part of my job to plan this event for the past three months, so I truly slept very well Saturday night and thank God for His many answers to prayer as we prepared for this event.

September 13

Auburn

The Auburn Presbyterian Church would like to ask for Prayer and thanksgiving for a Wonderful last year, exciting new ministries and energy. We are seeking God's direction and guidance as we move forward with new vision. We ask for prayers for discernment, igniting talents and an increased hunger for learning and understanding God's word. We want to thank Pastor Penny Schulz for her years of shepherding our congregation and we wish her the best.

September 20

Bancroft

Prayers are requested for the well being and prosperity of the Bancroft congregation. May they continue to grow as a caring and nurturing Christian community, as well as individuals, focusing on prayer, Bible study and worship.

September 27

Beatrice

Rev. Jimmy Shelbourn

The Beatrice church will be celebrating the three decades of Jimmy Shelbourn's ministry at Beatrice and preparing for his retirement on Sept. 1, 2016. Pray that our congregation will grow stronger in anticipation of a new chapter in the life of the church.
