

October Prayer Calendar

October 2 Cedar Bluffs

We thank God for the blessings bestowed upon our small church which truly is a church family, sincerely sharing their joys and concerns and working hard together for the betterment of the church, community and world. We are thankful for Reverend Earl Underwood, our officially assigned moderator of session. His ministry goes far beyond official duties, as he serves as pulpit supply two weeks a month, visits those in need, conducts funerals and has "adopted" us as "his" congregation. We pray for guidance as we face declining membership in an aging congregation and a very small town. We pray for comfort and strength for our members dealing with serious illness, guidance for their caregivers and medical staffs and for those who have lost family members. Each new day is an added blessing! God is good...all the time!

October Clarkson

Prayers are requested for the well being and prosperity of the Clarkson congregation. May they continue to grow as a caring and nurturing Christian community, as well as individuals, focusing on prayer, Bible study and worship.

October 16 Columbus El Buen Rev. Jose Antonio Garcia Andrade

Prayers are requested for the well being and prosperity of the Columbus El Buen congregation. May they continue to grow as a caring and nurturing Christian community, as well as individuals, focusing on prayer, Bible study and worship.

October 23 Columbus Rev. Annika Lister Stroope

Our prayers are full of gratitude for all the volunteers of the church who help make so many of our educational and music ministries go, as those re-launch this month, and for the new call of S. Edward Yang as Associate Pastor for Children, Youth, and Families.

October 30 Craig/Alder Rev. Gregg Gahan

Our biggest praise/prayer request right now is for our confirmation class/youth group. It was restarted last year with a lot of success and is continuing now after a summer break. Though Craig is a small community, there are other kids in the area we want to reach. Pray for the group's growth.
