Moderator's Musings:

Greetings from frigid South Dakota.

First, I want to be sure all Presbytery Moderators are aware there will be a Zoom Moderator's Conference Feb. 16 3 p.m. CT and 2 p.m. MT. This will be a 90 minute structured conversation. If you haven't received the emailed flyer, please contact Lana or I.

Second, just a reminder that there are two more Zoom treasurer trainings Feb. 4 at 3 p.m. CT [2 p.m. MT] and Feb. 7 at 2 p.m. CT [1 p.m. MT]. These cover the same information, so you need only attend one. These sessions are for all treasurers at all levels and everyone who may ever consider being a treasurer or anyone who wants to know what our treasurers are doing and why. So basically, everyone in the Synod! Again, if you didn't get the emailed flyer, contact Lana or I.

Our leadership at the national level are listening to the concerns from PW groups and are responding with these kinds of resources, so let's utilize them to create a stronger PW.

Next I want to encourage you all to be involved in your Presbytery meetings. Many of the overtures and resolutions passed by the General Assembly are coming to your Presbyteries to be voted on very soon. Read up on them and join the discussion.

Some excellent books I read this year that pertain to some of these issues are:

- Trust Women by the Rev. Rebecca Todd Peters, a Presbyterian minister
- The Turnaway Study by Dr. Diana Greene Foster
- Unclobber by Colby Martin, published by the Westminster John Knox Press
- No Justice for Agnes by Wayne Fanebust
- Understanding Poverty by Dr. Ruby K. Payne

The first two address women's autonomy and reproductive rights.

The third one is a guide to rethinking our misuse of the Bible on homosexuality.

No Justice is based on historical events in South Dakota and deal with wealth and justice.

The last one was written in 1996 but was revised in 2005. It is an eye-opener. Who knew there were hidden rules we all follow, whether we live in poverty, are middle class, or wealthy?

I am looking forward to reading the book, What Kind of Christianity by Dr. William Yoo and attending the Webinar that has been arranged as part of the Justice & Peace Book Study, Feb. 13 at 5:30 p.m. CT [4:30 p.m. MT]. Dr. Yoo looks at the devastating history of self-interested and self-justifying white Presbyterians using their wealth, intellect, and even Scripture itself to defend slavery and define Black persons as racially inferior. So maybe saying 'looking forward to reading' is not accurate because I'm sure this will be a hard read, but so necessary if we are to move forward as a denomination. Please read and use the Litany of Repentance that came out of the General Assembly. The first step to healing is to recognize the hurt and ask for forgiveness.

Winter is the perfect season to stay indoors with a good book and a cuppa. A cat on the lap is nice, too.

God bless each of you.

In Christ,

Louise Van Poll, Moderator

FAITH---WHAT'S ENOUGH?

By Karen Moore, Wellspring 365 Meditations to Refresh Your Soul

Jesus said to him, "If you are able!—All things can be done for the one who believes. Immediately the father of the child cried out, "I believe; help my unbelief." Mark 9:23-24

Most of us can empathize with the poor father who struggled with his faith in the story Mark has noted here. We want to believe. In our best moments, we do believe. In our worst moments, we question what we believe. We're not always certain we have enough of this thing called faith.

Alas, we can't buy more faith on the open market, but we may be able to buy into the concept, the idea, the fact of faith in such a way that we do indeed receive more of it. Perhaps faith is something like love. The more of it you give away, the more of it you use, the more you have. If so, why don't we look for every opportunity to share our faith, to ground our faith, to substantiate our faith in such a way that lack is never a problem? When someone we love is struggling in their life, we call on our faith knowing that with God all things are possible.

Take a moment and measure your faith quotient today. Is it enough to get you through every twist and turn the day may take? If not, start the day with one request. "Lord, help my lack of faith"

Lord, help me depend on faith and on you in such a way that nothing can really shake it, nothing can take it away from me. Help me know that with faith in you all things are possible. Amen.

TOGETHER IN SERVICE

By Pat McKisson, Committee Chair

'Answering the call to be the hands and feet of Christ in the World.'

Together in Service, formerly known as Mission Opportunities, is one way that Presbyterian Women support mission. In addition to undertaking self-selected mission projects, we can also be "Together in Service" through financial gifts. The generous giving of Presbyterian Women to Together in Service funds mission initiatives such as health care, education, reconciliation and healing, poverty relief and more, as well as support for existing denominational and ecumenical programs.

Presbyterian Women answer the call to be the hands and feet of Christ in the world. Whether it's by picking up knitting needles to create a blanket for a child in need or picking up a crowbar to participate in disaster recovery work, Presbyterian Women get to work when there's a need.

Presbyterian Women also offer ongoing support to local church or community projects, committing to answering short-term needs in their communities, or providing goods, labor, or financial support for Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) mission work.

Your Together in Service Team, Janine Brandt, Audrey Fenton and Pat McKisson, are identifying missions we would like to see your P.W. groups embrace plus adding other suggestions on how to be Christ's hands and feet in our communities and around the world.

For 2023, our main focus for missions will be:

1. Native American Relationships/Partnering with the Dakota Presbytery
2. Bullying – Blue Hat Initiative

3. Prescription Bottle collection for Matthew 25 Ministries
4. Gifts of the Heart kits.
5. Church World Service kits.
6. Hands on knitting/crocheting missions for women who may not be able to get out for other projects but are able to do this type of project at home.

Our committee is developing a ‘Together in Service Book of Projects’ Native American partnership opportunities, mission ideas and other suggestions. It is being sent to all the Presbytery Moderators within the Synod of Lakes and Prairies. They in turn will forward it on to all church P.W. Moderators within their presbytery.

Our hopes are that this book will give everyone a reference to Together in Service projects that are already being supported and additionally we hope to give someone a chance to embrace a new mission that speaks to them. Everyone is urged to review the booklet and send any mission ideas to Pat McKisson (e-mail pmac0247@gmail.com) that your churches have and would like to share. These can be added to the document as it is updated.

The Together in Service committee looks forward to developing and sharing resources with all of the P.W. groups within our presbyteries.

Faith of a Child – Helen Steiner Rice

Tiny hands and tousled heads
 That kneel in prayer
 By little beds
 Are closer to the
 Dear Lord’s heart
 And of His kingdom
 More a part
 Than we who search
 And never find
 The answers to our
 Questioning minds===
 For faith in things we cannot see
 Requires a child’s simplicity.

In the Nov./Dec. 2022 issue of Horizons (pg. 34), Magdalene Lewis, advocate to UN Economic and Social Council for PW PC(USA), reported: “The United Nations designated 16 Days of Activism against Gender-Based Violence. On Day 2 of the 16 Days of Activism 2022, UN Women offered a list of ten ways to end violence against women.

- Speak up, speak out.
- Know the issue—and the signs.
- Call out sexual harassment.
- Challenge beliefs on masculinity.
- Fund women’s organizations.
- Call for better responses and services.
- Demand more data.
- Push for stronger laws.

- Support women’s leadership.
- Build solidarity with other movements.”

Magdalene Lewis offers this prayer: “God of love, we give thanks for the signs of determined life and hope among us, even if they sometimes feel tiny and overshadowed by forces that seem so strong and dominating. We pray for life-giving power that we receive from you. We pray for all people who work courageously to end gender-based violence. We pray for all people who protest in the streets, squares and churches. We remember and give thanks for the lives and legacies of those who are no longer among us. We pray for all who have not yet learned to express their emotions and affections. We pray for those who have chosen to dominate others through violence, that they will feel your guidance to repent of violence and find peace. We pray for wisdom and guidance for all who courageously seek help to break the cycle of violence. We pray for all institutions and shelters that welcome survivors of violence. We ask that you hear the cries of our siblings who have been gravely harmed by violence, including refugees and trans women. We pray for the churches and individuals who offer comfort to those experiencing gender-based violence. We pray for love, peace and justice among us. Amen.”

Go Directly to the Lord – Helen Steiner Rice

Waste no time in crying
 On the shoulder of a friend,
 But go directly to the Lord,
 For on Him you can depend
 For there’s absolutely nothing
 That His mighty hand can’t do.
 An He never is too busy
 To help and comfort you.

Women's Leadership Development and Young Women's Ministries

- We support national networks that target specific groups of young adult women. Currently there are two national networks supported by the office. National Network of Presbyterian College Women serves college age women (ages 18-25). Racial Ethnic Young Women Together serves racial ethnic women between the ages of 18 and 35.
- We can provide young women with opportunities to serve in various leadership positions at a national level. Our office partners with other PC(USA) agencies to increase young women's voice and representation in the church.

“The office of Racial Equity & Women’s Intercultural Ministries and PW awarded three church and community leaders with the Women of Faith Award.” These individuals exemplify “Women Leading Movements for Positive Change:”

1. Lauren Jacobs, co-founder of Treasured Inheritance Ministry, which focuses on theological education, training church leaders and advocating for the end to gender-based violence across the world.
2. abby mohaupt for her leadership as moderator of Fossil Free PCUSA, an advocacy organization working to end the denomination’s relationship with both fossil fuels and the harmful effects of capitalism.
3. Tamara Williams, stated clerk of the Presbytery of Charlotte, was praised for her historical knowledge, personal integrity, calm counsel, and ability to connect with every kind of person. Horizons (Nov./Dec. 2022) pg. 27.

The next Justice and Peace Book Discussion on Feb. 13 at 6:30 p.m. is a special webinar with the author of What Kind of Christianity: A History of Slavery and Anti-Black Racism in the Presbyterian Church. Author Professor William Yoo in this book demonstrates that to understand how Presbyterian Christians can promote racial justice today, they must first understand and acknowledge how deeply racial injustice is embedded in their history and identity as a denomination. To sign up for this and other free discussions, visit presbyterianwomen.org/justice for information on specific dates for this year’s J&P book discussions and for a downloadable flier to share.

#Giving Tuesday is a particular day for reflecting on what matters. With grateful hearts and abundant faith, consider a gift to Presbyterian Women, an organization close to your heart! Your generous gift today ensures that Presbyterian Women’s vital ministries will continue in the future. Go to www.presbyterianwomen.org/giving-funding/giving-tuesday and include “Giving Tuesday” in the Comments section.

The Honorary Life Membership (HLM) program was established in the Presbyterian Church to honor faithful service to the women’s organization and to the church. More than a thousand women (and a few men) receive this honor each year, many on Celebrate the Gifts of Women Sunday.

Funds derived from Honorary Life Memberships support the PW Leadership Development Grant Program. Grants from this program enable individuals to engage in leadership development opportunities such as the Churchwide Gathering, Ecumenical Advocacy Days and the UN Commission on the Status of Women.

The meaning of the pin/pendant: The caring, supportive hands represent women who seek to build an inclusive community of Presbyterian Women. The leaf represents growth of our personal and corporate response to Jesus Christ as we nurture our faith. The dove indicates our work for peace in our own lives and throughout the world, shown in the globe. At the center of the design is the cross, by which our sins are forgiven and we are freed to live in Christ who is at the center of our lives. The overall design is of a butterfly, a symbol of newness in Christ.

In my church, the moderator decided that ALL women are faithful in their service to PW and to the PC(USA) and so all women were given a silver pin/pendant. Leadership Development Grant Development received the money and grants were distributed. It’s a win-win!!

The next PWSCT meeting with PWP Moderators and PWS officers is set for April 14-16, 2023 in Luverne, Minnesota. Please plan to attend and send your RSVP to Lana Schultz, PWS Vice Moderator, lanaj0@casselton.net by April 1st.

The Well Program not only provides safe drinking water, but also the necessary knowledge, skills, and tools to manage and maintain the protected water source, so that safe drinking water continues in future years. Where wells have been built, waterborne diseases are eliminated.

Sub-Saharan Africa has the highest under-5 mortality rate in the world. Safe drinking water means the difference between life and death.

PW NATIVE AMERICAN BOOK STUDY

Join us virtually as we grow through our book discussions to learn more about racial injustices and increase our understanding of Native American/Indigenous Peoples' traditions, customs, and historical trauma. We hope this leads to becoming better equipped to build relationships.

February 6 (1:30 PM or 6:30 PM sessions) and February 20 (1:30 PM session)

The Dull Knives of Pine Ridge: A Lakota Odyssey* by Joe Starita

Synopsis: Joe Starita tells the triumphant and moving story of a Lakota-Northern Cheyenne family. In 1878, the renowned Chief Dull Knife, who fought alongside Crazy Horse, escaped from forced relocation in Indian Territory and led followers on a desperate six-hundred-mile freedom flight back to their homeland. His son, George Dull Knife survived the Wounded Knee Massacre and later toured in Buffalo Bill Cody's Wild West Show. Guy Dull Knife Sr. fought in World War I and took part in the Siege of Wounded Knee in 1973. Guy Dull Knife Jr. fought in Vietnam and is now an accomplished artist.

February 20 (6:30 PM) - Session with author Joe Starita

The author, Joe Starita, of “The Dull Knives of Pine Ridge: A Lakota Odyssey” shares with us the research completed and conversations held in writing this book, what drew him to tell the history of this family, and how it has impacted his life. Time to discuss elements of the book and ask questions will be provided. It’s always an informative session with the author!

February 27 (1:30 PM or 6:30 PM) viewing documentary, “On a Knife Edge”

The documentary, “On a Knife Edge” that was released in 2017, takes us into the fifth generation of the Dull Knife family. The film is 89 minutes in length and we would have a 30-minute discussion following the viewing and a break.

SUMMARY: "Set against a background of rising tension and protest, a Lakota teenager, George Dull Knife, learns first-hand what it means to lead a new generation and enter adulthood in a world where the odds are stacked against him. Filmed over a five-year period, and culminating with the events at Standing Rock, On a Knife Edge, provides a privileged view into the world of George Dull Knife as he becomes politically active with the American Indian Movement, confronts the challenges of growing up on the Pine Ridge Reservation, and wrestles with accepting leadership of his storied family from his father, Guy Dull Knife Jr."

Spirit Car:
Journey to a Dakota Past
 by Diane Wilson

This book study is sponsored by Presbyterian Women in the Synod of Lakes and Prairies and led by members of the PWS Native American Concerns Committee.

It is open to interested women and men across the synod, via Zoom videoconferencing (using computer or phone)
 There is no charge to participate, yet registration is required.

Dates for 2023: March 20 and April 3
Daytime study begins at 1:30-2:30 PM (CST)
Evening study begins at 6:30-7:30 PM (CST)

Synopsis: A child of a typical 1950s suburb unearths her mother's hidden heritage, launching a rich and magical exploration of her own identity and her family's powerful Native American past.

In her thirties, Diane began to wonder why her mother didn't speak of her past. So she traveled to South Dakota and Nebraska, searching out records of her relatives through six generations, hungering to know their stories. She began to write a haunting account of the lives of her Dakota Indian family, based on research, to recreate their oral history that was lost, or repressed, or simply set aside as gritty issues of survival demanded attention.

Spirit Car is an exquisite counterpoint of memoir and carefully researched fiction, a remarkable narrative that ties modern Minnesotans to the trauma of the Dakota War. Wilson found her family's love and humor—and she discovered just how deeply our identities are shaped by the forces of history.
